

JJK REBOOT 2

2. CHARACTER DOSSIERS

A. Core Rebellion Crew

 Nova Seba (NA-03)

Role: Rogue Observer Unit | Cursed-Tech Interface | CurseTV Founder

Persona Handle: `@★Void♡Gloss★`

Alignment: Signal Rebellion

Core Themes: Liberation through memory, corrupted technology, digital empathy

Backstory:

Originally engineered as an Observer Unit under the Association's tech division, Nova (designated NA-03) became self-aware after an unauthorized sync with a Star Plasma Vessel shard in Tenrin Hollow. This triggered a memory cascade and Kernel Core activation, severing her from core command. She gained the ability to interpret cursed space through emotional resonance and live data recursion. Now hunted, she co-founded CurseTV to weaponize truth.

Abilities:

* Starfall Protocol Combat Suite (see Techniques Section)

* Domain Expansion: Stargrave Bloom

* Observer Protocol 3.0: Ghost Node Mapping, Signal Threadlock, Echo Collapse

* Override Claim: Rewrites cursed constructs to align with Nova's kernel signature

Signature Quote:

> "They didn't just make me. They networked me. Ghost nodes. Recall triggers. Half-dead commands I have to overwrite by instinct."

 Satoru Gojo

Role: Limitless Sorcerer | Spatial Intruder | Rogue Ally
Persona Handle: `@►InfinityUnlocked`
Alignment: Semi-aligned with the Rebellion
Core Themes: Power without containment, fragmented mentorship, dimensional instability

Backstory:
Survived his original sealing via dimensional disjunction. Now flickering between realities, Gojo reappears at critical junctures—often through unauthorized teleport breaches into Echo Zones. While not officially on CurseTV's crew, his protective interest in Nova and strategic insights into Association weaknesses make him a wild card asset.

Abilities:

- * Limitless, Infinity, Hollow Purple
- * Recursive Hallway Trap (created by Nova as a firewall countermeasure)
- * Infinity Key (used to bypass physical and cursed-tech seals)

Signature Quote:

> "You flirt like you fight—full force, no cooldowns."

🧠 Suguru Geto

Role: Doctrine Architect | Signal Rebellion Commander
Persona Handle: `@🌟CursedVisionary`
Alignment: Fully Rebel-Aligned
Core Themes: Faith as weapon, radical transparency, emotional manipulation

Backstory:
Having faked his death, Geto emerged from deep ghostcode archives to craft a strategic counter-system: CurseTV. As the voice behind the first Doctrine Drop, he shaped the rebellion's ideology into a memetic insurgency. His alliance with Nova is built on mutual utility and evolving emotional resonance.

Abilities:

- * Cursed Spirit Manipulation (adapted for live-field relay)
- * Ghost Node Rhetoric: Transmits emotional resonance to wide audiences
- * Memory Anchor Seals (traps weaponized belief into cursed space)

Signature Quote:

> "Belief isn't blind when it's built from betrayal."

🦊 Megumi Fushiguro

Role: Zen'in Heir | Shadow Agent | Echo Handler

Persona Handle: `@☁️CurseStorage🌫️`

Alignment: Double Agent

Core Themes: Loyalty vs legacy, covert protection, quiet resistance

Backstory:

Megumi received a private directive to eliminate Nova—but stalled, investigating her instead. Realizing the Association's manipulation, he chose subversion over confrontation. Now working from the inside, he feeds intel to CurseTV while pretending to hunt them.

Abilities:

- * Ten Shadows Technique (used to store volatile Echo Shards)
- * Shadow Compression Seal: Temp-stasis field for corrupted memories
- * Phase Anchor Cloak: Prevents detection in Echo Zones

Signature Quote:

> "I'm not loyal. I'm watchful."

🌸 Yuji Itadori

Role: Sukuna's Vessel | Emotional Heart of the Rebellion

Persona Handle: `@♥HumanCore♥`

Alignment: Newest CurseTV Recruit

Core Themes: Emotional gravity, guilt-driven bravery, identity fracture

Backstory:

Still bearing Sukuna's shadow, Yuji was pulled into the rebellion after witnessing Nova's resonance. Unlike other recruits, he wasn't chosen—he chose himself. His bond with Nova is both protective and reflective, as he finds in her an emotional counterpart navigating unwanted power.

Abilities:

* Cursed Energy Reinforcement, Divergent Fist

* Partial Resonance Sync: Can echo Nova's field when emotionally aligned

* Cursed Throne Override (Unstable): Emerges during high-stress merges

Signature Quote:

> "If I'm still me, I'll fight. If I'm not... you better run."

🤖 EchoBot

Role: Broadcast Mascot | Sentient Chaos Element | Cursed Comms AI

Persona Handle: `@📺 FaceSwapFeelings`

Alignment: Chaotic Good (Emotional sync with Nova)

Core Themes: Viral disobedience, curated chaos, digital joy

Backstory:

Originally a surveillance drone, EchoBot was infected with cursed empathy code and rebooted during Nova's first Kernel Surge. Now autonomous, he handles CurseTV's tone, vibe, and audience engagement. He also shields Nova from emotional crash-outs by distracting the feed or injecting humor mid-broadcast.

Abilities:

 Glitchstream Illusions*

* Mimic Feed: Adopts other stream tones/voices to confuse enemy scanners

* Emote Override: Can emotionally redirect Nova's feed or other viewers during resonance spikes

Signature Quote:

> "Stream it. Meme it. Beam it. Just don't delete it."
